About the Speaker: Henry Fiore, Jr.

Henry Fiore, Jr. has been a principal of three successful Catholic schools in the Diocese of Providence, RI., and is a freelance writer for RTJ's Creative Catechist Magazine. In 1995, he was awarded Distinguished Principal of the Year from the Diocese of Providence. He is not only an administrator, but also an advocate, and parent of a child diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder, and has presented workshops on autism for Catholic school teachers throughout RI, and nationally in Tampa last January for teachers from across the country.

Individuals with disabilities requiring special accommodations should contact the Sargent Center at least 10 business days prior to the scheduled event.
